

For Immediate Release

5/15/08

Art of Epic Proportions

UCI Presents Quad Annual Senior Art Exhibition

Irvine, Calif. - University of California Irvine (UCI) announces that its Claire Trevor School of the Arts will host the Quad Annual Senior Art Exhibition on Thursday June 5. The unique show, entitled Epic: B.A.M.F.A.S., will be held on campus at both UCI's Art Gallery and the Room Gallery, which has been the site of many contemporary artist showings.

The exhibition will feature the pivotal works of 37 emerging artists. Students will bring forth the best work of their college career. This will be a chance for art students to really showcase their talents in what will be an intense exploration of each individuals place within the art community.

"Epic: B.A.M.F.A.S. is a must-see event for art enthusiasts," said Professor Molly Corey. "It is the perfect opportunity to catch a glimpse of up and coming artists to keep an eye on."

There will be an Opening Artist Reception from 6 p.m.- 9 p.m. during which refreshments will be provided. The exhibition will run from June 5 thru June 14. For more information about the show and featured artists visit www.epicbamfas.com.

The Claire Trevor School of the Arts is one of the nation's most acclaimed and innovative centers dedicated to the study of the visual and performing arts. The school is located at the University of California, Irvine, a public university ranked by U.S. News & World

-more-

Report in the top ten in the United States. The Claire Trevor School, named for one of America's distinguished actors, offers degrees in Drama, Dance, Music and Studio Art, as well as a minor in Digital Arts. The School strives to deliver an educational experience that both develops superlative artistic abilities and provides an excellent liberal arts education.

###